The Daily Bulletin.

MONDAY, MAY 22, 1882.

Shrewd Canadian Father,

An original and novel way of preventing a registered letter from falling into the possession of anybody but the right person came to light at the Baltimore post-office a few days ago, when a letter addressed to the post-master was opened and a photograph found inside. The letter which was from Sherbrook, Canada, stated that the writer's son, a young man, had run away from home with a companion, and that the photograph was sent for the purpose of identifying him when he called for the registered letter, so that his companion, whose honesty the writer doubted, could not get it by misrepresentation. The registered letter was called for by the right person. It contained money to pay his expenses home.
